For adoptive parents, foster parents, adoption and other child welfare workers, adoptees, kinship care providers, child welfare administrators, and other members of the adoption and foster care community

Don't miss the 38th annual conference of the North American Council on Adoptable Children in Crystal City, Virginia from July 25 to 28, 2012! (Pre-conference session July 25; full conference July 26-28.)

Praise for the NACAC Conference:

- “Everyone who is tied to adoption or foster care needs this resource.”
- “I walk away feeling more motivated and inspired to do my work after the conference.”
- “As an adoptive parent and adoption professional, the conference was excellent, refreshing, and uplifting.”

...because every child needs a permanent, loving, and culturally sensitive family

The NACAC conference—the most comprehensive adoption conference in North America—will feature about 80 workshops by expert professionals and parents addressing a wide variety of topics, including:

- parenting children with special needs
- race, culture & diversity in adoption
- advanced issues in adoption & therapy
- recruitment & pre-adoption services
- adoption agency management
- advocacy & public policy
- search/open adoption
- post-adoption services
- permanency options
